Have You Ever Thought

Of the benefits to your boy in having him in a good boarding school?

Of what a thorough but not severe military training will do for him in physique building, and in teaching him punctuality, self-reliance, neatness and system?

That he will do better if systematically taught through individual attention how to study and how to apply himself?

That it is possible for the right school to develop an active, trained mind; a vigorous body; and integrity of character.
